Dear Wayne,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your note, the enclosed Lennox story and the letter to Hawks, which I'll read when I can concentrate on them.

I don't understand why Hawks either needs or feels he needs any kind of "fulcrum" unless they are still out of the baselines.

But I've too much to worry about to add that one.

Unless he has developed a fear or fears.

Or been spoken to and looking for back doors.

Best,
